

NJATTUVELA CELEBRATION

Students of Aravinda Vidyamandiram celebrated Njattuvela on 2nd July 2022 with a daylong fair. Smt. Asha Gireesh, President, Pallickathodu Grama Panchayat, inaugurated the fest. Agricultural Officer Mr. Praveen John shared the significance of 'Njattuvela' in his speech

As part of 'Njattuvela Celebration', the School arranged Agri Expo and Food Fest. Various organic products and traditional farm implements were displayed at the fair. Variety of food items like Tapioca, Jackfruit, Baji, Elayada etc. were made available in the stall. Horse riding was also a varied experience for the students and the staff.

The children created a paddy field in the campus. Ginger and turmeric were also planted near the paddy field.

Kerala traditional 'payasam' prepared by the teachers was in a great demand. The teachers told that they organised the Njattuvela Agri Expo & Food Fest with the objective of recapturing the lost legacy of agriculture.

"Today's children are alien to our traditional agriculture. We are introducing them to that culture where they can maintain an emotional contact with the soil", said Smt. Kavitha R C the honorable Principal of the school.

PADDY FARMING

The members of the department of Malayalam and Science initiated a new project – Paddy Farming, which aims at making students to learn the paddy cultivation, right from sowing seeds to planting, watering and harvesting. It was a unique experience of the students and staff to be a part of the programme.
