BIBLIOPHILES

English Department Association (Media Studies)
Academic Year 2026–2027

About Bibliophiles

Bibliophiles is the academic and creative association of the Department of English, envisioned as a vibrant platform for nurturing literary sensibility, media awareness, and cultural engagement among students. Rooted in the interdisciplinary nature of English Studies and Media Studies under the FYUGP scheme, the association promotes critical thinking, creative expression, and professional skills.

Bibliophiles aims to bridge literature, language, and media practices through a variety of academic, co-curricular, and extension activities. It encourages students to explore diverse forms of storytelling, communication, and cultural production while fostering intellectual curiosity, social awareness, and creative confidence.
