Venue of the event	KMEA College Garden
Name of the coordinators of event	Seby Jose, Dany Varkey
Class of the participant	NSS Volunteers
No. of Participants (Student + Staff)	34 students + 2 Faculties

Objective Of the Event

- To raise awareness about environmental conservation and sustainability among students.
- To promote active participation in preserving natural resources through hands-on environmental activities.
- To instil a sense of responsibility in youth towards maintaining ecological balance.
- To encourage the practice of planting trees and maintaining green spaces on campus.

Outcome Of the Event

- A total of 15+ fruit saplings were planted within the college premises.

- The herbal garden was cleaned, restored, and labelled for educational use.
- Students gained practical experience and awareness about tree planting and garden maintenance.
- Strengthened collaboration between students and faculty towards environmental responsibility.
- Increased enthusiasm among students for participating in eco-friendly activities.

Summary Report

The NSS Unit and Nature Club of KMEA College jointly organized the World Environment Day Observation on 5th June 2025 in the college garden. The program was inaugurated by Prof. Abul Kareem (Principal) who symbolically planted a tree to mark the importance of the day.

Following the inauguration, 34 NSS volunteers actively participated in planting a variety of fruit-bearing saplings in the college garden. The volunteers also carried out a thorough cleaning and maintenance of the herbal garden, ensuring its upkeep and promoting the idea of growing medicinal plants on campus.

The coordinators, Mr. Seby Jose and Mr. Dany Varkey, guided the students in both planting and maintenance activities. The event was a successful blend of awareness and action, motivating students to continue environmental efforts beyond the day's event.

Conclusion of the Event

The World Environment Day Observation at KMEA College served as a meaningful reminder of our shared duty to protect the environment. Through tree planting and herbal garden maintenance, students not only celebrated the day but also made a tangible impact on the college ecosystem. The active involvement of faculty and students highlighted the success of the event and reinforced the importance of sustainable practices in our daily lives.

Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct Environment Day Activities – Tree Planting and Herbal Garden Cleaning

Respected Sir,

In observance of World Environment Day, which is celebrated on June 5th, we kindly seek your permission and support to organize a series of environmental activities within the KMEA College campus. Our proposed initiatives include:

1. Planting of fruit-bearing trees in designated areas of the campus, contributing to biodiversity and sustainability.
2. Cleaning and maintenance of the herbal garden, to preserve and enhance its educational and ecological value.

We assure you that all necessary precautions will be taken to maintain cleanliness and order during the event. We would also welcome any additional suggestions or support from your side to make this initiative more impactful.

We kindly request your approval to proceed with the planning and execution of these Environment Day programs.

Thank you for your attention and support.

Venue of the event	College Auditorium
Name of the coordinators of event	Seby Jose
Class of the participant	NSS Volunteers
No. of Participant (Student + Staff)	50 Students + 2 Faculties

Objective Of the Event

- To create awareness among students about the severe consequences of drug abuse.
- To educate the youth on the importance and life-saving impact of blood donation.
- To encourage students to become active contributors in building a drug-free and health-conscious society.
- To inspire NSS volunteers to lead awareness campaigns in their communities.

Outcome Of the Event

- Increased awareness among students regarding the dangers of drug addiction and the value of a drug-free lifestyle.
- Enhanced understanding of the health and social benefits of blood donation.
- Students felt empowered to participate in anti-drug campaigns and blood donation drives.
- Motivation to take preventive actions within peer groups and local communities.
- Encouraged students to register as future blood donors and volunteer for health awareness initiatives.

Summary Report

The NSS Unit of KMEA College organized a Seminar on Anti-Drug and Blood Donation Awareness on 14th July 2025 at the College Auditorium. The session was formally inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Abdul Kareem, Principal, who emphasized the role of youth in combating drug abuse and promoting healthy societal practices.

The keynote address was delivered by Shri. M. Ranjithkumar, Coordinator of the Mahatma Mathrubhumi Study Circle. He gave an insightful and engaging presentation highlighting the alarming rise in drug use among youth and the psychological, social, and legal impacts of substance abuse. He also discussed the importance of voluntary blood donation as a life-saving act, breaking myths and misconceptions surrounding it.

The session saw active participation from 50 NSS volunteers, who interacted with the speaker and showed interest in organizing future awareness drives. The seminar concluded with a strong message about personal responsibility and community involvement in tackling drug-related issues and promoting health through blood donation.

Conclusion of the Event

The Anti-Drug & Blood Donation Awareness Seminar served as a thought-provoking and impactful platform for the students of KMEA College. With expert guidance from Shri. M. Ranjithkumar and support from college leadership, the event succeeded in educating and inspiring NSS volunteers to contribute to a healthier, drug-free society. The seminar reaffirmed the NSS Unit's commitment to social causes and public health advocacy.

Summary Report

On 30th July 2025, the NSS Unit of KMEA College successfully organized a Blood Donation Camp at the College Auditorium. The event was inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Abdul Kareem, Principal of the institution, who appreciated the NSS volunteers and student community for their consistent involvement in socially impactful programs.

The camp witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and staff, with 85 attendees and 60 individuals donating blood. The camp was conducted in collaboration with certified medical professionals under safe and hygienic conditions, ensuring the comfort and well-being of all donors.

Donors were provided with refreshments and post-donation care. In recognition of this successful initiative, the Indian Medical Association (IMA) awarded the college with a certificate of appreciation for its contribution to public health.

The NSS team, led by Seby Jose, ensured smooth coordination, proper documentation, and safety compliance throughout the event.

Conclusion of the Event

The Blood Donation Camp held at KMEA College was a meaningful and successful initiative that emphasized the value of community health and student involvement in life-saving causes. The high turnout, professional organization, and formal recognition by the IMA reflected the event's impact. This camp not only supported the healthcare system but also encouraged a generation of responsible, socially aware students ready to serve the community.
